Reviewed By CBC: City Council

Agenda Caption: Presentation, discussion, and possible action regarding the extension of the City's Declaration of Disaster.

Relationship to Strategic Goals:

- Good Governance

Recommendation(s): Staff recommends Council adopt the ordinance.

Summary: On March 17, 2020, the Mayor of College Station issued a proclamation declaring a state of disaster for the City of College Station resulting from the threat of a public health emergency from COVID-19. The proclamation was amended March 18, 2020, to include an order closing all bars, limiting restaurants to only take-out, drive-through, or delivery services, and limiting gatherings to less than ten (10) people.

Texas Government Code provides that a local state of disaster may not be continued for a period of more than seven (7) days without the consent of the governing body of the political subdivision.

Therefore, this Extension of Disaster Ordinance will continue the existing state of disaster until terminated by the College Station City Council.

Budget & Financial Summary: The disaster declaration enables City to respond appropriately to the COVID-19 pandemic and enables the City to seek state or federal assistance.
